To Whom It May Concern

On behalf of the Scientific and Organizing Committee of the VI International Scientific Conference in the field of Health Sciences - directions of change and prospects for development of “Global challenges of health sciences”, we are pleased to invite you to participate in this unique undertaking, which will take place on December 2, 2021 in Płock.

The subject of the Conference discusses broadly understood directions of change and prospects for development in the field of medical sciences and health sciences as well as a multifaceted reference to the SARS CoV-2 coronavirus pandemic and its impact on the functioning of health care.

The conference is addressed to nurses, midwives, cosmetologists, psychologists, doctors, physiotherapists, dieticians and other professions in the field of medical sciences and health sciences, students and graduates of these faculties and teachers dealing with health issues and all people interested in health and beauty.

We hope that the conference, in addition to a rich knowledge base, will enable you to establish strong and lasting professional and scientific relationships, national and international.

Yours sincerely
