To Whom It May Concern

On behalf of the Scientific and Organizing Committee of the VII International Scientific Conference in the field of Health Sciences - directions of change and development prospects titled Current aspects of health, diseases and human functioning in different periods of life, we are pleased to invite you to participate in this unique undertaking, which will take place on April 7, 2022 in Płock.

The subject of the Conference discusses broadly understood directions of change and prospects for development in the field of medical sciences and health sciences as well as a multifaceted reference to the SARS CoV-2 coronavirus pandemic and its impact on the functioning of health care.

The conference is addressed to nurses, midwives, cosmetologists, psychologists, doctors, physiotherapists, dieticians and other professionals in the field of medical and health sciences, students and graduates of these faculties and teachers dealing with health issues as well as everyone interested in health and beauty.

We hope that the conference, in addition to a rich knowledge base, will enable you to establish strong and lasting professional and scientific relationships, both national and international.

Yours sincerely

dr hab. n. o zdr. Mariola Głowacka - University professor Dean of the Faculty of Health Sciences
